WHEN TO FILE	The completed Form PA-30 shall be filed by March 1st following the date of notice of tax. Example: If you are applying for an exemption from you 2005 property taxes, which are due no earlier than December 1, 2005, then you have until March 1, 2006 to file this form.
WHERE TO FILE	Once completed and signed in black ink, this form shall be filed as follows: Original: Register of Deeds. Copy: Local Assessing Officials of the city/town of your primary residence. Copy: Property Owner.
TAX DEFERRAL PROVISIONS	The assessing officials may annually grant a person qualified under this paragraph a tax deferral for all or part of the taxes due, plus annual interest at 5 percent, if in their opinion the tax liability causes the taxpayer an undue hardship or possible loss of the property. The total of tax deferrals on a particular property shall not be more than 85 percent of its equity value. A tax deferral shall be subject to any prior liens on the property and shall be treated as such in any foreclosure proceedings. If the property is subject to a mortgage, the owner must have the mortgage holder's approval of the tax deferral. Such approval does not grant the town a preferential lien.
APPEALS	The assessing officials shall send written notice advising the taxpayer of their decision to grant or deny the request for exemption by July 1st. Failure of the assessing officials to respond shall constitute a denial of the application. If an application for a property tax deferral is denied, an applicant may appeal in writing on or before September 1st following the date of notice of tax under RSA 72:1-d to the New Hampshire Board of Tax and Land Appeals or the County Superior Court.
